

What: Volunteer Week 2013 Province-Wide Noise Celebration

When: April 22, from 6-7 pm

Why: Every day volunteers in Newfoundland and Labrador are busy working to make our communities better places to live. They do this without expectation of anything in return, quietly and diligently making life better for others and increasing quality of life for everyone. This

"So many volunteers give to their communities every day, quietly and humbly. This year we'll show Newfoundland and Labrador how much we appreciate what they do to help others...this year let's make some noise!"

- Paddy Daly, Honourary Chair
Volunteer Week 2013

Volunteer Week we want to celebrate these efforts in a unique way. Join the Community Sector Council NL, the Volunteer Week 2013 Committee and Honourary Chair, Paddy Daly along with many community organizations around the province. Together, Let's Make Some Noise! Let everyone know how much we appreciate the 52% of our residents who volunteer.

How?

- Plan or join an event in your community on April 22 from 6-7 pm. Join us as we countdown to a province-wide cheer for volunteers at 7pm. There will be numerous events happening at local fire departments, church halls, community centres, youth groups, and more! Local media will be covering the event.
- Follow along on our social media channels: www.facebook.com/volunteerweeknl or use the twitter hashtag #makesomenoiseNL
- Visit the CSC Volunteer Week website for details communitysector.nl.ca/volunteerweek

Ideas for noise events:

There are lots of ways to make some noise for volunteers. Marching bands, choirs, trumpets, bells, sirens, cheers, horns and even old-fashioned pots and pans. Fire departments, municipalities and community groups throughout Newfoundland and Labrador will be part of the celebration. You can too.
